

Thank you to the fifteen amazing volunteers who made the First Night 5k race a success. We had a whopping 135 runners, and the race went off without a hitch. Thanks to Donna Smyers, Tim Noonan and several other CVR members, the timing was fast and flawless. Todd Law with Montpelier Transportation did a miraculous job of salting and sanding the potentially icy course, and the Police Dept. handled the course change with ease. We added a new age group: 1-13 and had nine young runners complete the course, to the delight of the crowd. We have a lot of fun organizing this race and our reward is to watch all the smiling faces, ranging in ages from 6-70, cross the finish line to the enthusiastic cheers of the crowd and the cacophony of the noise makers.

Many thanks again, Happy New Year, we wish you all miles of joy,
Ann Bushey and Sandy Colvin, Race directors
