Race Updates

Approximately 110 people attended the New Year's Eve race.

Approximately 30 people attended the Snowshoe race.

Race Safety

It was suggested that race directors hire the Sheriff instead of counting on the police for help with traffic at larger races. The club wanted more signs & arrows for better marking for races.

Winter Fun Group Runs

Only 2 left this year, big success this year very well attended.

Membership Report

344 Runners close to a record high. Club would like some flyers to get the word out about new memberships. Talked about a QR code for a link to sign up.

UVRC (Upper Valley running Club)

The club will discuss in the fall when the race schedule comes up about the possibility of including at least one of the UVRC races in the series.

Proposal to share funds with senior games was discussed. The club supports the decisions of the race directors as to where the money is given after the race. The club agreed to funding the spring grants for a total of $2,000 to be divided equally amongst the requests. Motion to except by Jackie 2nd by Mark.

The Club would like to help the students with travel expenses for running. The executive directors will be in touch with Ann Bushey about who may need this money. The club wants to support the youth with travel expenses up to $1,500.00. Motion to except by Heather 2nd by Mark.
